Amit Mysore concentrates his legal practice on representing clients in commercial, general, and professional liability cases involving a broad array of premises liability, personal injury, and property damage claims. His tenacity and dedicated approach result in effective and efficient resolutions for his clients.

Amit's work ethic is evidenced by the blistering pace at which he compiled academic achievements. He received his B.S in Business Administration from Drexel University, double majoring in International Business and Economics with a Certificate of Intermediate Proficiency in French. He completed the entirety of his undergraduate coursework within three years, while competing on a nationally-ranked collegiate Bollywood Fusion dance team. Amit then enrolled at the Charles Widger School of Law at Villanova where he obtained his Juris Doctor as well as his Master's in Business Administration through Villanova's JD/MBA program. In his spare time, Amit provided pro-bono services to up-and-coming companies in need of corporate governance assistance. For his services, he was awarded the Dorothy Day Award for Pro Bono Service at graduation.

Rounding out his candidacy as the Most Interesting Man in the World, he is also a Second-Degree Black Belt in Black Cat Kenpo Karate. Amit enjoys finding new places for food and nightlife in the City of Philadelphia, attending Villanova and Eagles games, and continuing his search for the best Espresso Martini in Philadelphia.
